Shri Jai Karan Sharma's success sparked the imagination of a generation of progressive Indian entrepreneurs. He was a business statesman and visionary who introduced, what is now called Integrated Logistics solutions with multi-modal transportation, warehousing, packaging and just-in-time solutions, and way back in the 1980s. He had a knack for visualising the future economic scenario, which helped him take the most daring decision relating to fleet expansion and asset acquisition which resulted in sectoral growth and huge employment generation.

Shri Rajesh Kaul, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Tata Motors (Commercial Vehicles) said, "I am happy to be part of this occasion to honour Shri Jai Karan Sharma with the title of 'The Logistics Man of India'. We have had an amazing experience interacting with him and his company. He was a visionary and worked with a strong focus on customer satisfaction. He created new benchmarks, using path-breaking innovations and technologies, bringing the logistics sector to the mainstream. My wishes to his family who will carry his strong legacy, forward"

Shri Jai Karan Sharma was also a people's man. He would remember the name of his drivers as he believed in the dignity of labour and made it his mission to accord respect to the community. He stood for inclusive growth. He supported numerous potential entrepreneurs in setting up their own transport companies. He created livelihood opportunities for thousands of people. He had a passion to help underprivileged people of the society. He contributed to the education sector by supporting the infrastructure development of schools and colleges for economically weaker children.

Shri Mukesh Haritash said in his acceptance speech, "On behalf of our father, I am humbled to receive The Logistics Man of India Award along with my brother Sachin. Our father was our inspiration. We were witness to his entrepreneurial journey, his tribulations, and his triumphs. He was our Guru, and we aspire to follow his footsteps. We thank Alden Global and the entire Logistic Community for bestowing this honour upon our father. We commit to work hard and take our father's legacy forward and aim to take Chetak Group to even greater heights."

Shri Sharma's contributions to the social and economic development of society at large have been numerously recognized by many national and international organizations. In the past he was awarded the "Transport Rattan" by AIMTC, the Rashtriya Udyog Ratan" Award, "Outstanding National Citizen" Award by NSG, he was also bestowed with the title of "Transport Samraat" by AIMTC and the Udyog Rattan Award by Institute of Economic Studies.

His dream lives on, through the Chetak Foundation, a social arm of Chetak Group, set up by Smt. Krishna Sharma, his wife and their sons Mukesh, Rajesh and Sachin Haritash, as a tribute to its founder Late Shri Jai Karan Sharma's vision of making a positive impact to the lives of underprivileged communities. The Foundation is focussing on various areas including Education, Environment, Health, Livelihood, Nutrition and Road Safety.
